

more effective policies will emerge

EL. 346843921 IN 1819

Date 12/18/81

Chittarpur - 101401

1. Leopards live in forests and mountains. They eat small animals like rabbits, birds, and insects. Leopards are very dangerous. They have sharp teeth and claws. Leopards are solitary animals. They do not live in families. Leopards are very smart and fast. Leopards are endangered animals. They are protected by the government.

2. Monkeys live in trees. They eat fruits, leaves, and insects. Monkeys are very smart and cute. Monkeys are very active. Monkeys are very friendly. Monkeys are very social animals. Monkeys are very funny.

3. Bears live in forests. They eat berries, leaves, and insects. Bears are very large and powerful. Bears are very smart. Bears are very aggressive. Bears are very dangerous.

4. Elephants live in forests. They eat leaves, fruits, and insects. Elephants are very large and powerful. Elephants are very smart. Elephants are very friendly. Elephants are very social animals.

5. Tigers live in forests. They eat small and medium size animals. Tigers are very large and powerful. Tigers are very smart. Tigers are very dangerous.